

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS, SIXTH CIRCUIT
FACT SHEET FOR SOCIAL SECURITY APPEALS

6th Cir. R. 28(c) requires that counsel for the appellant and for the appellee file a one-page fact sheet in all social security appeals. The fact sheet should be the same size as the pages in the brief. It should be placed in the briefs of the parties immediately following the table of contents and preceding the statement of issues presented for review. Use this form, 6CA-55.

Case Name and Number: Ronald J. Niemasz v Commissioner of Social Security -- Case No. 04-2065

Person Reporting: Howard J. Slusky

1. Claimant's birth date: June 28, 1960
2. Date of application: October 6, 1998 (Protected Filing)
3. Date of expiration of covered status: December 31, 2001
4. School attendance through grade: 12th; 1-1/2 years college (no degree)
5. Jobs held for significant periods (cite to particular pages of administrative record):
Working as Foreman in cabinet warehouse from 1/1979 to 11/18/96 (TR 127)
6. Last date claimant worked and job held then:
November 18, 1996 (Same as #5 above)
7. If this claim is based upon injury, specify injury or injuries:
Spine injury.
8. If this claim is based upon disease, specify disease or diseases.
No.
9. Upon what medical reports does claimant rely to establish clinical support for disability? (cite to particular page(s) of administrative record): TR 159, 160, 163, 164, 187, 206, 207, 238, 257, 258, 259, 284, 286, 289, and 293.
10. Upon what medical or other reports does the Secretary rely to establish substantial employment capacity? (cite to particular page(s) of administrative record):
Office visit of 1/26/1998 (TR 257)
11. Which of the following agreed with the Secretary's decision?
(☒) the Administrative Law Judge
(☒) the United States Magistrate
(☒) the District Court
12. Are Supplemental Security Income Benefits involved in the appeal?
No.